Writer · Podcaster · Musician · Independent Creator

Jashae Slaughter — known online as Xeroforhire for over fourteen years — is a writer, podcaster, and musician building one connected body of work. He is the creator of the cyberpunk series The Last Day and the Apocalyptiverse, hosts The Xero for Hire Podcast, and records as The Legend of XERO. His throughline is a Christian worldview held as a lens rather than a message — story first, discernment over tribe, and nothing preachy.
